EAGLE Celebrates Recipient of Excellence Awards at SQF Unites Conference

Lead auditor selected for 2022 SQF Excellence Award

Dayton, OH, November 14, 2022 – EAGLE Certification Group announces lead auditor Joe Wieland was awarded the Excellence in SQF Auditing Award at SQF Unites Conference.

The award for Excellence in SQF Auditing is given to a credentialed SQF auditor who demonstrates exceptional performance and dedication to the SQF Program through high-quality audits, professional development activities, leadership and mentorship skills and promotion of food safety culture.

As lead auditor for the EAGLE Certification Group, Wieland provides a strong understanding and passion for food safety. Wieland takes a thoughtful approach to training and developing new EAGLE auditors—offering lessons learned from his personal experience, listening to concerns and clearly sharing the intent of the SQF audit deliverables.

“Joe is humble in his approach and takes every opportunity to learn and expand his knowledge, sharing it at each and every interaction with other auditors and site representatives,” said Nancy Berger-Turner, senior business development manager of EAGLE Certification Group. “We meet people along our career path that have a positive impact on many, and Joe Wieland is definitely one of those select individuals.”

The 2022 SQF Excellence Awards are presented by Exemplar Global. For more information about the 2022 SQF Excellence Awards, please visit www.SQFI.com/Sqf-Excellence-Awards-2022.
